

Mr Chelva R Rajah

*Senior Counsel
Tan Rajah & Cheah
Singapore*

Mr Chelva R Rajah studied in Anglo-Chinese School, Singapore and then furthered his studies at Lincoln College, Oxford University and then in Inns of Court (Middle Temple) in London.

He has been practicing law in Singapore for 36 years and was admitted as an Advocate and Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Singapore in 1972. Mr Rajah also held a variety of appointments, such as the President of the Law Society of Singapore, Vice President of the Singapore Academy of Law 3, Member of the Military Court of Appeal, Singapore, Judicial Commissioner, High Court of Singapore, Chairman of the Singapore National Committee, ASEAN Law Association and is also a member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration.

He was also appointed Senior Counsel in January 1998, as well as appointed Legal Assessor, Singapore Medical Council. Mr Rajah has been involved in more than 50 domestic and or international arbitrations.

He is also currently a partner in Tan Rajah & Cheah, which is a Singapore law firm mainly engaging in arbitration general litigation and in banking, construction, company, commercial, insolvency and contract related matters.

Mr Rajah holds a non-executive director position in Singapore public companies, such as UOB-Kay Hian Holdings Limited and Overseas Union Enterprise Limited. He also holds non-professional appointments such as the Board Member, Mercy Relief and a Member of Legal Commission of the Singapore Red Cross Society.